22 12. Supervised Visitation:

23 a. All Petitioner's Court-Order Supervised Visitations with the Children shall 24 be supervised by Terra Firma ("Supervisor"), or other professional
25 supervisor as agreed to by the Parties in writing. Petitioner shall advance
26 the supervised visitation fees and costs subject to the State Court's
27 jurisdiction to reallocate fees. [Doc 98, para 1(b) – modified]
28

- b. Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations will be arranged by the Parties' counsel and the Supervisor, and never directly or indirectly by or between Petitioner and Respondent. To the extent possible, the schedule shall be memorialized in written Stipulation and Order to provide for consistency, certainty, and reduce unnecessary fees and conflict. The Parties' counsel may meet and confer regarding a Stipulation to modify the visitation schedule.
- c. Respondent shall share a weekly update on the Children's school classes and extracurricular activities so that Petitioner can talk to them about their activities during court-ordered visitation. During any Court-Order Visitation, the Children may discuss what they did during their activities generally (i.e., "we had soccer practice today;" "we practiced painting in art class"). Petitioner may not ask the Children details about the logistics of those activities, such as who the soccer coach is, where practice takes place, or at what exact times those activities take place. [Doc 106, para 20 – missing from Resp.'s proposed order]
- d. The Supervisor will be present for in-person visits and shall supervise remotely during video visits. Respondent may elect to take the Children to Terra Firma's facility for remote visitations or the facility of any other professional supervisor as agreed to in writing by the Parties. [Doc 106, para 18 – modified]
- e. All Children shall appear for Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations pending further order of the Court. If one of the Children cannot join due to a doctor appointment, or due to sickness and confirmation from the pediatrician is provided, the visit with the other two Children should proceed. On the other hand, a school activity should not prevent the Child from attending a Court-Ordered Supervised Visitation with Petitioner, as visitation between

Petitioner and the Children shall take priority. [Doc 106, para 16]

- f. Petitioner will strictly adhere to the Supervisor's guidelines, timing, and other requirements as to all exchanges during Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations. [Doc 106, para 1(b)]
- g. Petitioner shall not raise his voice, use swear or curse words, or use any abusive language during any Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations. Petitioner agrees to only speak English during the visits. [Doc 106, para 7]
- h. Petitioner shall not raise the issue of his relationship with Respondent or ask questions about the Children's relationship with Respondent during any Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations. Neither the Supervisor nor the Children shall be used to gather information about the other Party or caretaker or to transmit documents, information, or personal possessions. Petitioner agrees to not prompt any discussion of Respondent during Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations. If the Children discuss or mentions Respondent in relation to relaying information about their day or activities, Petitioner is permitted to ask questions about those activities without referencing Petitioner directly, but Petitioner shall not seek follow-up on anything related to Petitioner. [Doc 106, para 11]
- i. If the Children independently raise issues or topics the Parents have agreed not to discuss, Petitioner will attempt to redirect the Children. Petitioner will not imply or suggest to the Children that things will be "worked out" between the parents. If the Children independently raise issues or topics that Petitioner is not allowed to discuss during Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations, he may tell the Children not to worry about that issue or topic and change the subject. He may also explain to the Children that he is not allowed to discuss that issue with the Children at this time. [Doc 106, para 17]

j. The Supervisor has authority to terminate any Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations pursuant to California Rules of Court Standard 5.20, in addition to authority to terminate any Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations pursuant to any prior order issued by this Court, ECF Nos. 96, 98 and this Order. [Doc 106, para 4]

k. Unless otherwise ordered, no statements made by the Children during any video or in person visit will be admissible in Court. The supervisor's reports, including any reference to the Children's behavior, demeanor, emotions, or the like, will be admissible in Court. Additionally, because Petitioner was a party to the Hague Petition and will be a party to any state court proceedings, Petitioner's statements and behavior during any visitation will be admissible in any state court proceedings. [Doc 106, para 21 – modified]

13. Conduct Orders:

a. Advance Notice of Arrival: Petitioner must not travel to or enter California without 72 hours' prior written notice to Respondent's counsel for each visit. Petitioner shall disclose the location where he is staying during each visit to California. He need not disclose the exact hotel(s) or other residence(s) where he is staying but shall provide his general location while he is in California (e.g., city and street). Such information is produced to counsel as Attorneys' Eyes Only. [Doc 153, Section VI; Doc 106, para 1]

b. For the avoidance of doubt, Petitioner will notify Respondent's counsel 72 hours before he lands in California. For example, should Petitioner's flight land in California on Saturday at 12 PM, he will notify Respondent's counsel by the previous Thursday at 12 PM. [New from Resp.]

c. Discussing Litigation with Children:

i. Neither Party shall discuss pending litigation with the Children. [Doc 106, para. 10] or make attempts to influence any child's view of the dispute. [Doc 106, para. 8.]

ii. Neither Party shall attempt to influence testimony of the Children's view of any pending dispute, including but not limited to custody and visitation. [Doc 106, para 13 - modified]

iii. Neither parent shall discuss court proceedings with the Children in any manner. Petitioner will not promise to "fix things" or "stop everything" or otherwise make promises to the Children about the outcome of litigation or resolution of family problems. [Doc 106, para. 15]

iv. Neither parent shall make any statements to suggest the Children are unsafe with the other parent, that they need to be saved or rescued, that they have been kidnapped or make any statements about efforts to locate the Children following their departure from Armenia. [Doc 106, para 12]

d. Stay-Away: Petitioner shall not approach within 100 yards of Respondent or the Children except as permitted by the Court for Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations pursuant to this Order.

e.—Petitioner also shall not approach within 100 yards of Respondent's residence, Respondent's workplace, the children, and the children's School. The stay-away orders do not apply for Petitioner to visit with the children for court-ordered contact or visits.

f. [Doc 106, para 1(a) – modified]

g. No Contact:

i. Petitioner shall not have any unsupervised contact with the Children outside Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations.

Petitioner shall not contact the Children outside the Court-Ordered Supervised Visitations. [Doc 106, para 2]

ii. Petitioner shall not call, text, email, or otherwise contact Respondent, the Respondent's family, the Children, or the Children's California school except as otherwise permitted by this Order. [Doc 106, para 3]

iii. Petitioner shall not contact Respondent except via Our Family Wizard, ECF No. 98. Respondent agrees to provide at least two photos of each Child per week and will provide more if more are taken. [Doc 106, para 6]

h. No Threats or Abuse:

i. Petitioner shall not make threats to, including but not limited to the Children, Respondent, Respondent's family members, and/or Respondent's friends. Petitioner will not make threats relating to the Children's therapist, anyone at the Children's school, or any person or ethnic group. [Doc 106, para 6]

ii. Neither Party shall use profanity or insults when speaking with the Children, including the word "cockroach" which has particular resonance to all Parties involved. [Doc 106, para 14]

iii. Neither party shall make any threat or promise regarding the Children's toys or belongings in Armenia. Petitioner may bring toys with him on supervised visits, and may have stuffies or other favored toys participate in video visits. [Doc 106, para 19]

14. The intent of this stipulation is not to advise the state court on how to rule on any restraining orders, visitation or custody disputes, or, if any, divorce proceedings. The state court, with its expertise in family and custody disputes, shall retain its own discretion to make rulings based on the facts of the dispute presented in state court proceedings
